the background of ICTR detainees

The transcript of the highlight begins on the following page.

00:00 Donald J Horowitz: W-, what kind of prisoners do you have here? In other words are there different categories of prisoners or, or people who are detained here?

00:11 I have different categories. We have military high rank, we have some generals, majors, captain, major, majors also are here and even colonel among them, which means that they are well, high, well-educated. We have a member of the government, different backgrounds; doctors in medicine, we have lawyers, we have also – what they say – economists.

00:44 DJH: Mm-hmm.

00:45 And we have also some lower people among them – prisoners which are, didn't get high education but they are very few.
